ABOUT MNLU

Maharashtra National Law University (MNLU), Nagpur was established by the Government of Maharashtra in 2014. The university is an academic community striving for excellence and holistic development to contribute meaningfully to society. It aims to produce socially responsible and accountable legal professionals. To realize this vision, the university, through its centres, works to develop legal and intellectual acumen within its academic community, fostering a confident and critical outlook towards the profession and society.

ORANGE CAPITAL DEBATE

III EDITION

The Quiz, Debating and Literary Committee of Maharashtra National Law University Nagpur is delighted to announce The Third Edition of “The Orange Capital Debate” a British Parliamentary Debate scheduled for 31st July to 2nd August 2026. With participants from across the country coming together in the spirit of dialogue and discovery of ideas through thought-provoking debates. Building on the resounding success of the first two editions, which witnessed enthusiastic participation and insightful discourse, the committee proudly brings this event once again – bigger, bolder, and more impactful. This edition promises a dynamic platform for exchange of ideas, collaboration, and learning, and fostering innovative conversations.

ORANGE CAPITAL DEBATE

Nagpur, widely known as the Orange City of India, has much to offer beyond the thrill of The Orange Capital Debate. The city is renowned for its flourishing orange trade, deep-rooted cultural legacy, and its distinction as the geographical centre of the country. From iconic sites such as Deekshabhoomi to serene escapes like Seminary Hills and Ambazari Lake, along with the famed Tadoba, Andhari Tiger Reserve nearby, Nagpur seamlessly combines history, nature, and intellect. Complemented by a burgeoning café scene, seamless connectivity, and welcoming hospitality, Nagpur ensures that delegates enjoy a well-rounded experience, making the city itself an integral highlight of the event.
